ARREST OF STUDENTS.

London, August 15.—A dispatch to the Times from St. Petersburg says, referring to the situation of affairs in that country, that arrests of students occur daily. Much dissatisfaction has been discovered at the cadet school in the South. As regards the attitude of students in the civil schools the minister of education has addressed a circular to all his subordinates. More or less important traces of sedition propaganda have been discovered in thirteen gymnasias and ten schools of the secondary class. There have been serious disorders in fourteen gymnasias.
The scholastic authorities have been urged to enforce discipline in the education of these institutions and call in the aid of the police if necessary.

ITALY.

A WAR-LIKE DEMAND.

Gibraltar, Aug. 15.—The Italian envoy at Tangier, Morocco, has lowered the flag on his consulate and the inhabitants are in consequence in a great panic. This hostile act on the part of the envoy is because the Sultan of Morocco has not yet yielded to the ultimatum of Italy, insisting upon the full payment of claims of Italian subjects. There is an Italian squadron in the harbor in readiness to support the demand.

ALARMING SIGNS OF EARTHQUAKE.

London, August 15.—There are alarming signs of earthquake in Sarara, on the island of Ischia. Springs are drying up and smoke issuing from fissures in the ground, the minister of public works has ordered the immediate erection of huts for the accommodation of the people in case they are compelled to vacate their houses.

A MINE DISASTER.

London, Aug. 15.—While thirteen men were being hauled to the surface at a mine near the town of Redwick, in Cornwall, to day, the rope attached to the car broke and twelve of the men were precipitated to the bottom of the shaft and instantly killed.

BULLDOZING A BANK.

London, August 15.—A party of de-positors in a small savings bank in London, angry at their inability to draw their money on demand, entered the bank and wrecked the premises.
The police were called but refused to interfere.

THE PRESIDENT'S PARTY.

SILL Loitering in Wild Western Scenes—Hunting and Fishing.

Camp Bishop, Forks of Wind river, Wyoming, August 15.—The president and party are camped at the Forks of Wind river upon the same ground occupied last year by General Sheridan.
The camp was then named Camp Bishop in honor of H. R. Bishop of New York, who was a member of the general's party, and the name has been retained for the present camp.
We remain to-day for the purpose of affording an opportunity for various members of the party to hunt and fish, and to arrange the pack teams. This is our supply camp, whence we have to take on pack rations and forage enough to last through the park. At the present moment, while writing this dispatch, all members of the party have gone out hunting and fishing. The president, who is in fine health and spirits, has gone on horseback with Gen. Sheridan about three miles up the main fork of Wind river, to where last evening the president caught some fine trout. The march of nineteen miles from Camp Stager to this point led through the beautiful scenery of the Wind river, where gorgeously colored and fantastically shaped mountains alternate with those which are covered with grassy slopes and timbered ravines. The weather is delightful and thoroughly enjoyed by everybody. Three antelopes, a bear, several grouse and a rabbit were brought into camp last evening, so there is at present no immediate danger of starvation.

CASUALTIES.

Collision of Trains on the Iron Mountain Railway—Several Persons Killed or Injured.

St. Louis, August 15.—News reached here to-night of quite a serious accident on the Iron Mountain railroad about 9 o'clock this morning, near Cadet station, fifty-seven miles from here. It appears that a freight train broke down at Cadet at 4 o'clock this morning and an engine was sent down from DeSoto to bring it up. When about a mile from Cadet the relief engine collided with a gravel train coming north, badly wrecking both engines and several cars. Jerome Pinson, fireman of the relief engine, was killed outright, and Broome Williams, its engineer, very seriously scalded on the head, face and body, and will probably die.
John Stevenson, engineer of the gravel train, had his arm broken and ribs fractured; Henry Moore, brakeman, arm broken, internally and perhaps fatally injured; Pat Gleen, fireman of the gravel train, foot crushed.

Reports from all adjacent counties on the constitutional amendments show the amendments received a large majority of the votes cast.

Rev. Mr. Sewall, who was shot at Seguin yesterday by a barkeeper named Denman, died last night from his wounds. Sewall was a Bible agent and was shot for defaming the character of Denman's wife.

GONE TO THE WALL.

Details of the Failure of the Two New York Houses Which Were Wrecked

by the Panic.

New York, August 15.—The failure yesterday of Geo. Wm. Ballou & Co., was followed to-day by the suspension of the firm of E. Steadman & Co., bankers and brokers. At 1 o'clock p.m.
Edmund C. Steadman announced from the strum of the stock exchange that pending examination into the affairs of Cecil, Ward & Co. he had made an assignment. The firm is composed of E.C. Steadman and his son Frederick, who has been a member for three years past. The following statement was made to a reporter by Steadman's brother-in-law: "Steadman returned to the office Monday from a three days' vacation, and upon looking into the accounts of the firm found a large deficiency. He at once caused a thorough investigation and was almost prostrated by discovering that during his absence Frederick Steadman had been speculating heavily on his own account with the money of the firm. Although not positively known, it is supposed his transactions were made through the firm of Cecil Ward & Co. The liabilities will not exceed $200,000 and the suspension will be merely temporary. It is expected the assets will nearly reach this amount.
Edmund C. Steadman is well known as a poet and prose writer. He has been a member of the stock exchange since 1865, and always been a steady and reliable broker. His business will not exceed $100,000.
The Quaker lady also got her young servant to adopt a few of her mottoes, which she always adhered to in after life.

Young Gloucester had by this time left the college, and was a private student under a clergyman. He then took a position as teacher in colored schools in Poughkeepsie and Hudson and about 1852 he was married to his father's ward and with her came to New York, settling in the Fifth ward.
Here the couple bought considerable property, and their first heavy gain was in selling some of this property which had advanced considerably in value.

The couple had ten children, six of whom are now living. Three of the girls have graduated from Oberlin College, Ohio. Soon after coming to this city, Mr. Gloucester was ordained a minister in the Congregational church, the ceremony taking place in the Broadway church.

While residing in the Fifth ward Mrs. Gloucester became acquainted with John Brown, who became a fast friend of hers. She several times supplied him with money, and he was always a welcome guest at her house.

She also gave her husband money with which he built the St. John's Presbyterian church, in Prince street, Brooklyn, of which he was first pastor.

The family removed to Brooklyn, where Mrs. Gloucester for the past two years kept very select boarding house at Nos. 144, and 146 Remsen street and at 74 Clinton street.

For some time past Mrs. Gloucester has been suffering from acute bronchitis, and lately heart disease wracked her, causing her death. She will be buried to-morrow from No. 141 Rem-sen street.
